

APPLICATION FOR RESEARCH GRANTS FROM THE NORDIC TAX RESEARCH COUNCIL

Preferably the application is sent by email to the general-secretary of the council. The application is to be sent as a Word-document and that additions that may occur is to be pasted into the same document (so that the complete application form a single electronic document). If the application only concerns a specific and limited part of the applicants research, information shall be given on the total research project as well as the limited part that the application concerns. Separate information shall also be given concerning the purpose, time plan, other means of financing etc connected to the research which the application concerns.

Email: caroline.nordklint@juridicum.su.se

If an electronic application can not be sent, the application and enclosures is to be sent in 30 copies to:
Nordiska Skattevetenskapliga Forskningsrådet, c/o Caroline Nordklint, Juridiska fakulteten, Stockholms universitet, SE-106 91 Stockholm.

Name
Title
Year of birth
Adress and e-mail
Name of research project or a short description of it
Short description of the applicants background and present engagements
Amount of money applied for (currency of native country)
Detailed timeplan for the project
Financial plan/budget The following should be presented below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Other eventual financial means - Extent and economical benefit of any side-line job during the research period - Thorough outline of expenses Please separate each post in the budget, such as salary, increased cost of living, course fee, travel costs etc.

Previously received grants from the NTRC. If yes, please specify when and for which project
Opinion of supervisor, if any (may, if needed, be sent as a separate enclosure)
Description of research project: purpose, already achieved results (if any), method, publishing plans etc. (may, if needed, be sent as a separate enclosure).

Date

Signature

The Nordic Tax Research Council is responsible for processing personal data in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Our purpose of processing personal data is primarily to fulfill our commitments in accordance to applicable laws. The submitted data may also be used in the Nordic Tax Research Council's internal work. Please be informed that by filing the application with the Nordic Tax Research Council, you approve that the personal data submitted is processed for these purposes.